Ada Merchant, Back From East, Says Deflation
Is Over.

Deflation is practically at an end. Conditions are rapidly nearing normal. In many industries such as the clothing there are evidences that for the time being the conditions may even be sub-normal—that prices now offered by retail clothiers are lower than will prevail during the spring and summer.

And because of this situation and the riches of the country at large, the shortage of stocks in many fields such as railroad supplies, building, road materials, and so forth, the time is ripe now for a Prosperity drive that will banish the psychological depression that remains and will bring us back to business and employment speedily.

These were the chief thoughts developed at the mid-winter conference of the National Association of Retail Clothiers at St. Louis as told by Ben Schienberg, who returned from the convention today.

"There is no question," said Mr. Schienberg, "but what the present price for clothing are the result of a landslide—and instead of stopping at that level justified by existing production and wage, they carried on to lower extremes that justify the assertion that unless there is an important revision in production and wages the coming months will find an increase in retail clothing prices."

"There must be an increase of production and a decrease of manufacturing costs before clothing prices can be permanently held at their present levels."

"That the country is ripe for a Prosperity Drive is shown by the facts. Prices are reduced. Cotton is down to pre-war levels. Building construction long delayed by the war, must soon resume. Railroad supplies are far below requirements. There are 12,000,000 tons of rail alone required by the roads. There will be a huge program started soon for the construction of highways. Crops are big. Copper stocks low. Retail lumber yards are empty. On every side you find the signs that say that prosperity will resume just as soon as we begin to believe it and start to work for it."

"A revision of taxes," continued Mr. Schienberg, "must come. The tax legislation of 1918 was perhaps the worst we could have had in so far as its effects on business were concerned."

"And there should, also, be a universal unearned program for a resumption of buying. This was clearly pointed out at the conference. If the consumer stops buying, the retailer ceases his purchases. That forces the manufacturer to stop and curtails the mills—and eventually ends up with vast numbers of unemployed with buying an impossibility instead of a means toward continued stable prosperity."

"It's time to sell—time to 'get back to business'—time for us all to awaken to the fact that prosperity is here for all who will get out and hustle for it."

NOTED YOUNG TENOR TRAINED AT COLLEGE

Albert Lindquest, who is known as "The American tenor with a voice of gold" is a college-bred man. Mr. Lindquest is a graduate of Chicago University where he started out to become a lawyer. It was Alessandro Bonci, the great lyric tenor of the Chicago Opera Company, who persuaded young Lindquest to forsake Blackstone for a musical career.

The broadening effect of his collegiate training is shown in Mr. Lindquest's splendid platform act, just as it is noticeable in the art of Herbert Witherspoon, Ronald Warren and other noted artists. These artists sing with their heads as well as their throats. They have imagination and their brains have been taught to function in other things as well as in musical.

Lindquest will sing in Ada Wednesday, February 9, in the Normal auditorium.

Police Grab Elover, Hunt on For Girl

To Go With Country
Girl.

TULSA, Feb. 3.—Steel barriers at the city jail changed behind Denver Whiteley, 24, shortly after 11 o'clock today and police detectives began searching hotels and rooming houses for Jessie Nelson, 16, daughter of C. W. Nelson, farmer, residing near Krebs, Pittsburg county, Oklahoma, who disappeared yesterday from the Pasadena hotel 114 1-2 East First street.

Whiteley's frantic search for the young country girl, with whom he had eloped last Saturday, brought about his arrest. Appealing to newspapers for aid, Whiteley related a story of leaving his home at Quinton, Okla., coming to Tulsa with his young wife in search of employment.

Leaving the girl in their room at the Pasadena hotel yesterday morning, Whiteley left in quest of work. He returned several hours later and the girl was gone. Hotel attendants said she had gone out to a restaurant and had not returned.

Waiting until dark and becoming almost frantic when she failed to appear, Whiteley, avoiding police aid, told a story to newspapermen of a year's married life at Quinton, his decision to go to a larger city and the timidity of his wife, who had never been out of the small farming community in her life.

Police Detectives Harry Sanders and Henry Carmichael, following the receipt of a tip furnished by The Tribune, arrested Whiteley at the Pasadena hotel.

At police headquarters Whiteley admitted he was the man for whom police throughout the state have been searching for five days.

Find Girl, He Pleads.
"Gentlemen," he exclaimed to a group of detectives, "I'll plead guilty to any charge you may file against me, but I want you to find the girl. For God's sake find her. She doesn't know how to take care of herself in a rowdy town."

"When did you marry her?" a detective asked.

"I haven't married her," Whiteley said, "although we were intending to get married. I love the girl and she loves me. I guess I've done wrong, but I want you to find the girl for me."

Whiteley admitted that he had been married a year and residing at Quinton, was false and related in the hope of throwing the police off his trail. He also admitted that he had a wife and two minor children who he deserted at Carbondale, Okla., a small mining community near Krebs, where he had been working as a miner for the last eight months.

Tells of Elopement.
While employed in the mines, he said, he became acquainted with the farmer's daughter. After a courtship of six months they agreed to elope. Saturday morning he went to McAlester, Okla., and was met by the girl.

From McAlester they went to Muskogee where they remained Saturday night Sunday morning they went to Okmulgee, where they remained until Monday morning and then came to Tulsa. Yesterday morning the girl disappeared.

Reports received at police headquarters from the sheriff of Pittsburg county today were to the effect that Whiteley, under the name of Berley Neal, married the girl before leaving McAlester.

Denies His Marriage.
Whiteley today vigorously denied the marriage. He also admitted that he had never been divorced from his wife, although he "had been thinking about getting a divorce." He has never been separated from his wife and children until the elopement, he said.

"Didn't you have sense enough to know you'd get yourself in a mess by running away with a 16-year-old girl?" Chief of Detectives Patton asked.

"She told me she was 18," Whiteley contended.

Whiteley said, "I haven't married her," although we were intending to get married. I love the girl and she loves me. I guess I've done wrong, but I want you to find the girl for me."

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 5.—The steamer Klamath bound from San Francisco to Portland with passengers, went aground at Fish Hook about 90 miles north of here, early today, according to advices to the Marine department of the Chamber of Commerce. The steamer Curacao is proceeding to the Klamath's assistance.

The marine exchange received a wireless report from Captain Hall of the Curacao, that he was two miles from the Klamath and could see no signs of life on board. The seas were too heavy to admit of his going closer, he said.

WILL PASS NEW AUDIT
SYSTEM LAW FOR COUNTIES

McALESTER.—An audit system for counties, to be made every two years by the state inspector's office, has been endorsed in resolutions passed by Pittsburg county commissioners and forwarded to its representatives in the legislature at Oklahoma City for introduction in a bill seeking to make such practice a law.

The commissioners propose a special act requiring the county excise board to set aside enough money every two years to care for the audit expenses. The cost was computed on a basis salary of $2,000 a year and expenses of the auditor, which would mean approximately $400 for a county the size of Pittsburg.

A statement from the commissioners declared it was not a revision on the part of its county officials, but a safeguard for the future.

MEMPHIS, Tenn., Feb. 5.—With three persons, alleged intermediaries in the sale here of approximately $300,000 worth of stolen Liberty bonds, under bond to answer to charge of receiving stolen property, Memphis and New York detectives and postoffice agents still had before them today the task of identifying the mysterious "B. Anderson" and "Mr. Cameron," said to have been the men who tendered for sale here the greater part of the $460,000 worth of bonds, stolen in the robbery of a broker's messenger in Brooklyn November 3, last.

KANSAS CITY, Feb. 5.—More than three thousand dollars worth of bonded whiskey was confiscated and four men arrested early today when police raided a saloon on North Main street. None of the men arrested would reveal the name of the owner of the liquor.

More than five thousand gallons of liquor have been seized by prohibition agents here since inauguration of the booze cleanup Thursday night. Most of the raids have been conducted on the north side, in a section known as Little Italy.

Two thousand gallons of wine and 200 gallons of whiskey were dumped into sewers here yesterday.

ST. LOUIS, Feb. 5.—A canvasser of banks at St. Charles, Missouri, today disclosed that approximately $25,000 mostly in Liberty bonds and securities, was obtained last night by five bandits, who kidnapped Willis H. Thornhill, a negro drayman, and stole a pouch of first class and registered mail.

Details of the robbery were related here by Thornhill. He said he was waiting at the Missouri, Kansas and Texas railroad station in St. Charles to put the pouch on the train for St. Louis, when the men came by in an automobile and after forcing him to lay down in the bottom of the car took the pouch and kept him prisoner until they reached St. Louis, releasing him on the northern outskirts of the city.

SHAW'S CELEBRATE SUCCESS OF SALE WITH BANQUET

$100,000 Stock Moved From Shelves in Intensive Selling Campaign.

When Shaw's department store closes its doors tonight, one of the biggest sales events in the history of East Central Oklahoma will have come to an end. A stock of goods representing an investment of approximately $100,000 has been moved from the shelves of the store through its intensive selling campaign during the "Blue Bird Message Sale" which has been going on for the past three weeks.

A banquet was served in the dining room of the Harris hotel last night to the store's big family by S. M. Shaw, the proprietor, to celebrate the success of the big undertaking and as an expression of his appreciation for the co-operation of the entire force.

Seventy-five were seated at the tables, including department managers and clerks. The festivities commenced at 8:30 and it was 11:30 when the last after-dinner speaker had been heard.

With the shelves in his big store stocked to the limit, and realizing the need for starting the goods to moving, Mr. Shaw contracted with the Hastings Sales corporation of Kansas City to turn the merchandise into cash. Elmit Held, sales director of the corporation, personally took charge of the selling campaign, and prices were slashed regardless of cost. In doing this Mr. Shaw has suffered a loss running into thousands of dollars, but it was necessary to move the stock in order to start again on a normal basis.

Mr. Held presided at the banquet last night as master of ceremonies. When the last source of the sumptuous repast had been served, he arose and told of the secret key which opened the way to success for the big undertaking which has brought thousands of shoppers to Ada to take advantage of the bargains offered, and which resulted to a large extent in loosening the purse strings of the buying public. Perhaps you have seen a little man circulating about the big store when you went there—a little man with horn-rimmed glasses and puffing away on a stogie. In one hand he held a blue pencil, and he paused here and there to say something to one of the clerks, or to mark a piece of goods. That was Mr. Held. Together with Langford Shaw, son of the proprietor, he worked tirelessly night and day to keep the wheels turning and to give the buyers something new to think about each day.

Mr. Held is more of an advertising expert than a salesman. Before tackling the job he asked for an appropriation of $5,000 for advertising. Thousands and thousands of circulars were printed and sent out; every issue of the Evening News has carried his messages from the Blue Bird; and every possible means of putting the sale before the public was utilized until everyone in the whole country surrounding Ada knew of it. From the morning when the doors were first opened until today, crowds have filled the store in response to the appeal of the advertisements sent out.

That, said Mr. Held, was the secret of the sale's success. He pointed out the Evening News for the part played by this paper in the store's publicity campaign, and thanked all of the clerks for their efforts to make the sale a success.

Mr. Held estimated that by tonight $60,000 will have been taken in, representing the sale of goods valued at $100,000.

Representatives of the Evening News were the only outside guests present.

George Says to Crush Huns

(By the Associated Press)

BIRMINGHAM, England, Feb. 5.—Premier Lloyd George in a speech here today dealing with the recent meeting of the allied supreme council, said before the last election he laid it down that Germany was morally bound to pay for the wanton damage she had inflicted, but that one could only get from a debtor that which he was capable of paying. He asserted in this connection that Germany must not be allowed to pay in a way that would injure the country receiving payment—by cheap goods for example.

FARMERS OPPOSE STATE EXTRAVAGANCE

Strict economy on the part of the state legislature is demanded in the resolutions adopted by the Farmers Union of Pontotoc county in their county-wide meeting at Ada Saturday afternoon. They declare opposition to large appropriations and salary increases and to the creation of any more state institutions. They also lend endorsement to the plan of giving state aid in building warehouses in the various counties of the state. Following are the resolutions.

The Farmers Educational and Co-operative Union of Pontotoc county in county meeting assembled in the city of Ada the 1st day of January, 1921, having in mind the present serious financial condition of the farmers of the state and realizing the ever increasing burdens of taxation in Oklahoma resolve to submit to our representatives in the state legislature the following requests.

1. We urge our representatives to support a resolution extending the time of paying the first half of 1920 taxes for at least three months no taxes to become delinquent or draw a penalty for non-payment for at least three months after January 1, 1920.

2. We endorse the plan suggested by the Farmers Union to have the state appropriate $1,750,000 for the purpose of building warehouses in the cotton and wheat counties of the state, such warehouses to be under the control and management of the farmers of the various counties.

3. We are opposed to any increase in state appropriations over the total appropriations made by the legislature in 1919. We are particularly opposed to any appropriation for the purpose of building any additional buildings at any of our state institutions unless such additional buildings are to be erected at our state asylums and then only when they are absolutely necessary to take care of the state's unfortunate citizens.

4. We are opposed to the creation of any additional state institutions for any purpose whatsoever and urge our representatives to oppose the creation of any more institutions.

5. We denounce as criminal extravagance the proposed erection of a football track at Oklahoma University to cost $340,000. We call our representatives attention to the fact that there are in Oklahoma today many thousands of poor children who do not have sufficient clothing to keep them in comfort this winter. In view of the widespread need of our people we strongly condemn the proposed expenditure of money for building football tracks anywhere in the state.

6. We are opposed to salary increases for either state or county officials. We call the attention of the legislature to the fact that the high cost of living is coming down, that the price of farm products is far below the cost of production, and that it is the duty of our officials to live on the salaries now provided by law and not to seek increases in salaries.

7. We are in favor of a better system of road building, a system that will build roads for the accommodation of the people and not for the accommodation of automobile tourists only. We believe that roads should lead from the farm communities to the principal trading points of the various counties and not from one county to another to be traveled only by joyriders.

8. We believe that the tap on automobiles should be collected in the counties where the automobiles are owned and kept and not collected at Oklahoma City. We believe that this tax should be spent on the roads in the counties where collected and where the money will do the most good.

Resolved, that a copy of these resolutions be sent to our representatives in the legislature, Luther Harrison of Ada and W. O. Pratt of Roff, and that a copy be sent to our county papers for publication.

Oil Production Being Reduced To Maintain Prices

A. J. Walker returned Monday from a trip through the Healdton, Hewitt, Comanche and Walters oil fields, where he has holdings. Mr. Walker reports that several of the large pipeline companies operating in that district have recently reduced the amount of oil they will handle through their pipe lines, in an effort to hold up the price of oil.

The Magnolia, Empire, Texas and Prairie companies have announced that they will accept for transportation through their pipe lines only 50 per cent of the potential production of the various producers they serve. It is reported that the Waters-Pierce company has refused to accept any oil for transportation at all.

It is not known just how long this condition will last, but it is the opinion that the necessity which prompted the orders will have been outlived within a few months. The application of the rule has resulted in the shutting down of a number of wells in the fields affected, and the lessening of production in other wells.

The condition of congestion which rendered the order necessary is said to be purely local and to effect only the fields mentioned above.

NEWS NOTES FROM MOVIELAND

George and Anita Stewart.

"Don't they look alike?" "Are they really brother and sister?" "They don't look a bit alike, do they?" "There's a slight family resemblance, isn't there?"

These and many other such remarks will greet this new picture of Anita Stewart and her young brother. What's your opinion? Mine is that it is a good picture whether they look alike or not. Miss Stewart, who is known in private life as Mrs. Rudolph Cameron, is now making a new picture called "The Tornado."

George Stewart has not been in pictures long, but he is already making rapid strides toward film fame. His latest screen performance was in "Old Dad," in which he played opposite Mildred Harris.

"MELANCHOLIC" TO FOLLOW "VIRGINIAN" Douglas Fairbanks' production schedule is dated so far ahead that it looks as if he and Mrs. Fairbanks (Mary Pickford, of course) would have to postpone their working trip to Europe until the spring. After the elaborate production of "The Virginian," planned by Mr. Fairbanks, he will do another original by Rob Wagner entitled "The Melancholic" which, if we remember rightly, is the title of what he plans to be a sequel to "The Nut," the themes of both of which promise to be genuine semi-serious surprises.

Attempt To Burn Stanfield Barn Not Successful

Fire, thought to have been of incendiary origin, was discovered at 11:30 last night burning at two corners of a feed barn owned by Allen Stanfield, and located at the west edge of the city limits. The blaze was noticed by parties living near by and extinguished before it could make much headway. No damage was done, but a few minutes delay on the part of the men who noticed the fire would have resulted in a loss of the barn and the slaughter plant located near it.

The fact that the grass and straw at two corners of the barn were burning in about the same way leads the owner to believe that the fire was started by someone who wished to destroy the property.

Officers were called and a search was made for tracks, but none were found. Inquiry developed that no one had been seen in the vicinity of the barn previous to the fire. Mr. Stanfield stayed at the barn the remainder of the night to catch the guilty party should he return to complete the job.

NO FEAR IN LOVE—There is no fear in love; but perfect love casteth out fear; because fear hath torment. He that feareth is not made perfect in love.—1 John 4:18.

RECOGNITION OF RUSSIA.

Certain members of congress and others who are advocating the recognition of the soviet government of Russia, in order that the United States may trade with that country—or rather in order to put the government back of such trading—might learn something from the opinion of John Spargo, Socialist author.

Mr. Spargo went to Russia with a deputation which included another well-known Socialist, and he went for the purpose of learning what he could about the soviet government. His judgment is that "so long as the bolshevik remain in power and maintain their present policy there can be no security for foreign capital invested in Russia."

"It is absolutely impossible for American business men to rely on the honesty of its leaders in their dealings with the soviet government," Mr. Spargo told a committee of the senate. "The reason why the bolshevik are so eager to obtain recognition, that it inspires their incessant and costly propaganda, is itself a sufficient reason for denying that recognition."

If Mr. Spargo went to Russia with any prejudice it was in favor of the soviet principles, but he saw enough in Russia to convince him of the utter dishonesty of the men in control of the soviet government.

In spite of the judgment of men who know something of the facts regarding Russia, there is some agitation in this country for recognition of Lenin and Trotsky, in order that the United States may obtain its share of the business which Russia is reported to be ready to give to nations willing to forget the bloody deeds of the bolshevik and run the risk of being stabbed in the back by tricky leaders.

SCIENCE AND SPIRITS.

We are told by Dr. Herewood Carrington, the distinguished investigator into psychic matters, that if laboratories were properly fitted up in America, scientists would be able to reach some definite conclusions within 10 years as to the possibility of communication with the dead. That is a subject in which every human being is bound to be interested. It does not seem likely that mere lack of laboratory equipment will be allowed to stand in the way. And yet it must be confessed that mankind has made surprisingly little progress in its attempts to rend the veil of death and explore what lies beyond.

An important recent development, and one which apparently has been pretty generally overlooked, is a device perfected by Professor Imoda of the Paris Psychological Institute, which points to a theory that radium, that mystery-matter, may hold the key that will unlock the secret of spirit communication. One does not need to be a spiritualist to be interested in the things these researches disclose. Science forges ahead, regardless of creed or dogma. One day, perhaps, it will penetrate to the beyond. And then—!

HOUSES IN DEMAND IN ADA.

And Ada man who had a five-room house for rent placed an advertisement in the Evening News to run three days but he ordered it discontinued before the time was up. He reports that he received more than fifteen applications for the house in less than two days.

Besides tending to impress the sublime truth of the principle that "it pays to advertise", this incident also shows conclusively that there is still a serious house shortage in Ada, in spite of the general slump in business that has been felt here as everywhere else.

Much building was done here during the first half of 1920 but toward the latter part of the year construction work began to fall off and, except in a small way here and there, little building is now being done. Evidently this slow-up is not due to the fact that there is no demand for additional houses; the answers to the advertisement above mentioned proves that more residences are wanted; it can be caused only by the belief that it will cost less to build later. All that is needed to start construction work is the readjustment of building costs on a reasonable basis.

When a man does not want to do a thing which his heart prompts he flatters himself that he is a hard-headed business man.

Human nature is still very much the same, except that there are more things now over which a man may make a fool of himself.

It is now said that 10 cabinet positions will be filled from 13 eligibles, which will make it more or less unlucky for three.

If a man ever feels like loosening up financially it must be when a bandit pokes a pistol against his chest.

The persons who were saving a little money never lost faith in the ability of the American dollar to come back.

FEBRUARY THAW

THE LEGISLATURE

OKLAHOMA CITY, Feb. 5.—Both houses of the Oklahoma legislature are in recess today, adjournment having been taken yesterday until Monday.

Outstanding in yesterday's session was the passage in the house of the measure authorizing the state board of affairs to purchase from the United States government the Sanatorium at Clinton for the use of former service men suffering from tuberculosis. Due to a defect in the bill it will be necessary to reconsider the measure, but house leaders declared action will be taken again early next week. With the sentiment of the house unanimously favorable to the bill, as demonstrated clearly yesterday, repassage is considered certain. An appropriation of $50,000 for improvement at the sanatorium was also made.

Senator Rutherford's bill conferring on the supreme court original jurisdiction in suits to enjoin the collection of illegal taxes was passed by the senate.

Speaker Coming To Boost Ada's Chance In Better Cities Race

Dr. J. Adams Puffer, speaker of national repute, will be in Ada Tuesday, February 8, to speak in the interest of the better cities campaign.

The principal address will be delivered at the Baptist church Tuesday evening. No admission will be charged and it is hoped that a large crowd will be on hand to hear the noted speaker discuss questions in which all good citizens should be interested.

Arrangements have also been made for Mr. Puffer to address the pupils at the High school and the Normal school Tuesday morning, and the members of the Lions club at the noon luncheon of that organization.

He comes under the auspices of the National Child's Welfare League, at the invitation of the Lions club and the Chamber of Commerce, and his visit is purely in the interest of boosting Ada's chances in the "Better Cities" contest.

Axe Slips From Man's Hand, Cuts Gash in His Knee

L. S. Kite, a carpenter living at 303 west Eighth street, received a painful injury Friday afternoon when a sharp axe slipped from his hands and cut a deep gash in his knee.

Kite was chopping wood at the P. A. Norris farm when the accident occurred. While the injury was very painful, the attending physician is of the opinion that it is not dangerous and in all probability Mr. Kite will be able to resume his work within a few days.

LEGION RECEIVES MANY LETTERS PRAISING WORK

(By the Associated Press)

INDIANAPOLIS.—The American Legion has received more than a hundred favorable answers to its memorial calling attention to the situation which surrounds the rehabilitation of disabled world war veterans, according to F. W. Galbraith jr., national commander of the legion. The memorial was presented to the president, president-elect and congress.

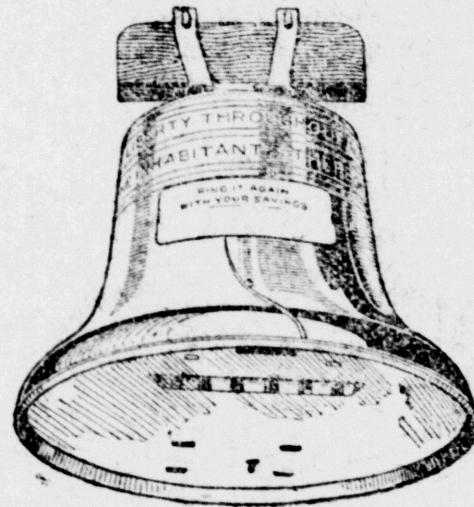

According to Mr. Galbraith practically all of the letters from the secretary to the president, from senators, representatives and heads of various government departments and bureaus stated that the writer was squarely behind the Legion's national plan of rehabilitation.

The memorial outlined the situation in regard to the disabled, suggested a remedy and urged the support of the president and the congress. Copies of the memorial are being distributed to all departments of the Legion and to patriotic and civic organizations in 1,500 cities.

Letters of approval received at National headquarters of the Legion here include those from Senators William S. Kenyon, Robert M. La Follette, Medill McCormick, Harry S. New and T. J. Walsh.

Ada Girl Considered Beauty in University of Neighboring State

Special to the News.

FAYETTEVILLE, Ark., Feb. 3.—Miss Verlie Cobb, of Ada, is considered one of the prettiest girls in the University of Arkansas, according to a popular contest which is being held at present under the auspices of the "Razorback," the annual publication of the junior class.

Each year there is a "beauty contest" to decide by popular vote whose photograph shall be printed in the place of honor in the annual. The voting is going on at a spirited rate and by the end of the week the student body will have decided officially who is the prettiest girl in the whole university.

Ada High Triumphs Over Pauls Valley In Double Victory

Ada High won a double victory from Pauls Valley Hi Friday evening when the boys won by the score of 24-13 at the local high school gym and the girls playing at Pauls Valley, won by the score of 39-11.

Both games were warmly contested and were won only by superior skill and management on the part of the local teams.

The Ada visitors put up a brave fight and displayed remarkable skill during the entire engagement but their efforts were more than counterbalanced by the local players who played with all the old-time pep and judgment.

Due to the splendid teamwork of both teams there were times when the large crowd of spectators were really in doubt as to the location of the sphere.

Superior skill at shooting goals helped the home boys to wrest victory from the visitors, and in the multiplicity of star plays made there was glory enough for all.

The girls went to Pauls Valley with a perfect record, having suffered no defeat during the season, and their easy victory over the Pauls Valley team adds another star to their crown, and further demonstrates that they must be reckoned with by the team which plays for the inter-school championship.

The girls made the trip to Pauls Valley by auto, and were accompanied by a number of friends who helped encourage the players by their rooting at the proper times.

The Poet's Prayer.
If there be some weaker one,
Give me strength to help him on;
If a blinder soul there be,
Let me guide him nearer thee;
Make my mortal dreams come true;
With the work I fain would do;
Clothe with life the faint intent;
Let me be the thing I meant;
Let me find in thy employ,
Peace that dearer is than joy;

And to heaven acclimated,

Valentine Party.
The members of the Young Married People's class at the Methodist Church were entertained with a Valentine party at the home of Mrs. T. O. Dandridge last Monday evening. There were twelve couples present and a most delightful time was had by all. The rooms were beautifully decorated in red and white hearts, in keeping with the Valentine season.

Progressive games of bunco, old maid and other popular parlor games held the attention of all for the entire evening. A guessing game was also highly enjoyed, after which a short business meeting was held. Plans for giving money to the poor in foreign countries were discussed, with other minor matters. This class is under the charge of Mr. Fenton.

Delicious refreshments of chicken sandwiches, angle food cake and hot chocolate were served, after which the guests departed having spent a delightful evening.

HUSBAND OF TWO YEARS PROVED TO BE A WOMAN ALSO

SIoux CITY.—Dorothy Dunkleman, forty, of Melvin, Iowa, alleges that on February 6, 1918, she was "married" to "Clifton Re Vere," and lived with her "husband" until recently without suspecting at any time that the "man" she married was a woman. This remarkable quasi-sexual romance was shattered recently, when Sioux City police arrested the supposed husband and O. D. Church, mail sorter at the Sioux City postoffice, and known in the "Re Vere" home as "Mr. Re Vere's brother." The couple confessed, police say, under grilling, to being in reality Mr. and Mrs. O. D. Church, husband and wife.

Mrs. Church, whose maiden name was Agnes Pearsall, was reared at Center Point, Iowa. She has written several books, one of them, "The Garden of Faith," based on early experiences in her girlhood home. She is said to have often worn male attire as a girl, and her relatives declare she has entered on this escapade, they believe, to secure "color" for another novel.

It was through a novel written by Miss Dunkleman that the strange "romance" started. An advertisement for $400 to aid in securing the publication of the book attracting the attention of Mr. and Mrs. Church and a meeting, "courtship" and "wedding" followed.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Church were placed in the county jail here in default of $5,000 bonds. Mrs. Church is reported to be acting strangely. An insanity defense is hinted. The fact that Miss Dunkleman's father is reputed wealthy (her mother being dead) is the accepted reason for the strange venture on the part of the Churches.

Mrs. Church is a small angular woman, giving her age as thirty-eight years. She has a heavy, rather husky voice.

The Churches deny any deception or intent to defraud.

Everybody who keeps hens could profit by keeping a simple debit and credit account with the flock to see how he stands at the end of the year.

ADA STEAM LAUNDRY CO.

This is one of the oldest established laundries in this part of the state, but the owners and managers, W. S. Holloman, C. E. Jones and E. C. Hunter, who started the laundry ten years ago have operated this plant and kept the service up to the standard, as the city of Ada has grown from a small town.

This large establishment, the only one in the city, measures up to the requirements of a rapidly growing city like Ada in every way. Although it is one of the pioneer enterprises of the city, its managers have not become self satisfied and fallen into a rut with the idea that it should be supported because it was here first.

This laundry has kept pace with the rapid progress of the city at all times, and have adopted every modern method and system that would render prompt and efficient service to its many patrons. The managers take pride in the appearance of the plant, which is very evident in the amount invested in modern machinery.

The company has just recently installed new Machinery at an investment of several thousand dollars, and has made it possible to handle the increased business of the establishment with perfect dispatch, insuring a maximum of efficiency in service to its patrons.

The work turned out by this laundry is very satisfactory, as shown by the ever increasing business from small towns around Ada.

FARMERS SET NEW RECORD IN CORN YIELD

(By the Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, Jan. 19.—1920 was the greatest corn year in the history of the country according to the records of the Department of Agriculture. Besides growing a record crop of 3,232,367,000 bushels, the farmers established a new record for average yield per acre with 39.9 bushels, the second time in history that the country's average yield went past 30 bushels.

The area planted to corn last year was 104,601,000 acres which was smaller than the area planted in eight other years heretofore and 1,400,000 acres smaller than the area which produced the previous record crop of 3,124,746,000 bushels in 1912. Last year's crop was the third to exceed 3,000,000,000 bushels.

Iowa, the country's greatest corn producing state, made an average of 46 bushels to the acre for the first time.

Springfield, Ill.—"I had periodic trouble with weakness, cramps and backache and I could not work. A neighbor recommended your medicine and I took four bottles of Lydia E. THE MOST BEAUTIFUL CAR IN AMERICA

CONTROL BODY WHILE FLYING THROUGH SPACE

TULSA.—"If you should happen to be precipitated from the top of a tall building, take a deep breath, bend your head and draw your chin in against your chest, you will land on your feet and your life will be saved, more than likely, as a consequence."

W. B. Killmer of this city, business man and member of several civic clubs, who began his professional career as the "active" member of an aerial trapeze team, gives this advice.

Killmer, who claims to have introduced into the circus, with his partner, the aerial trapeze act, was thrust out upon the world at the age of 17. A chance meeting with another youth and an athletic club in Rock Island, Ill., was the beginning of the team, Killmer says. After several months of practice the pair started out almost 13 years ago with the Washburn and Arlington circus at a time when, Killmer says, there were 19 circuses touring the country. They performed what are now considered comparatively simple tricks on swinging trapezes without the net, Killmer says. At one town in the south Killmer and his teammate were placed under arrest for not using a net.

They supplied the net but shortly after the circus career for both ended when Killmer's partner was married. "I engaged another partner but I spoiled the next show," Killmer said, "for when it came time to begin our act I found I lacked the confidence in the new man and the same afternoon left the tent and have since entered one only as a spectator."

The human body can be controlled while hurtling through space, according to Killmer, through the application of the basic rules of success in aerial trapeze work. A deep breath before bending the head in the direction desired will bring ready response from the body which is beyond control of the muscular system. This, says Killmer, was his first lesson in trapeze work.

A Correction. It was stated in an ad for Lindquest's entertainment in Friday's paper that the reason Oscar Segall, the great Victor artist, was cancelled was because Lindquest and accompanying artists would draw a larger crowd.

Now, we wish to make this impression prevail. Oscar Segall alone would perhaps draw better than Lindquest. He is more universally known; but Lindquest carries two more artists with him and for that reason and that alone do we believe that the larger show and more diversified entertainment would interest the people a little better. It is with regret that the great Victor star, Segall had to be cancelled, but as each Lyceum number staged in Ada has thrown this town from $100 to $500 "in the red" and by our binding contract with the Lyceum Bureau, we are now $1000 in the hole. Now by securing another artist instead of a contract and so therefore be safe in bringing Lindquest here without incurring any more indebtedness.

We also hope that all the season ticket holders will see the light the same as your town Lyceum committee and appreciate their efforts fall down, not to disappoint you, but are doubling their efforts, are out both time and money in fulfilling their obligations to the season ticket holders and when we call for a donation of 50c from you that same will be gratefully contributed in helping us out of our difficulty.—Lyceum Committee.

CLUB MEMBERS ARE MAKING READY FOR BIG STOCK SHOW

OKLAHOMA CITY.—Calf and pig club members in 12 Oklahoma counties have reported to the state agent here that they are feeding more than 300 baby heaves for exhibition at the Southwest American Livestock show, to be held here March 14 to 19. Officials of the Oklahoma calf club declare it will be the largest calf club show ever held in the United States.

Arrangements have been made for holding a 3-day livestock judging contest and short course in connection with the show.

The directors of the Fat Stock show have offered prizes aggregating $1,500 to calf club members of the state for the best exhibitions of young stock. This plan was inaugurated, the secretary said, because cattlemen realize that the future of the livestock industry in Oklahoma depends upon the boys that are now inclined toward cattle raising.

Garfield, Stephens, Oklahoma.

Johnston, Hughes, Canadian Cleveland, Pontotoc, Ottawa, Love, Grady and Osage counties have reported club members preparing fat calves. These counties are also planning calf club shows at their respective county seats on March 12 and then shipping their exhibits to the show here.
